Online Planroom Access: As full or affiliate members, you are granted full access to all of the information and documents on our online planroom if you choose to subscribe. This includes pre-tender, current tender, and post-tender information. Associate members and any other members who are not subscribed are able to access basic information on the projects in the planroom.

Association Communications: Every Wednesday, the Saskatoon Construction Association distributes a bulletin with information on upcoming events, construction news, and reports from our planroom. These reports include Active Projects, Lows and Awards and Pre-Bid for the entire province. The bulletin also provides advertising opportunities to members.

Young Executives: The YE group is a great opportunity for young professionals to get together and network in casual settings. The YE provide a range of opportunities including targeted education from industry leaders, informal networking nights and Young Executives exclusive social events. Please check the YE box below to be put on the mailing list.

Please list the employees you would like to receive access to the above:

Membership in the Saskatoon Construction Association automatically includes membership in the Saskatchewan Construction Association, and the Canadian Construction Association. Periodically, these three associations communicate electronically with members via email. According to Canadian anti-spam legislation, your consent is required for our associations to send you emails. These emails will provide you information on the work the associations do on your behalf, information on opportunities for your business, and access to important information on the construction industry and related issues. Please check this box in order to provide your consent to receive occasional emails from the Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, and Canadian Construction Associations.

I hereby give consent to the above
